Change Management Business Seminar

“Thinking About Retooling”

For all employers and managers that will be affected by the closing of Fort Monmouth

DATE/TIME: Tuesday, January 15, 2008, 1:00 PM TO 4:00 PM

PLACE: Brookdale Community College
Donald D. Warner Student Life Center

This no cost seminar will help businesses owners and managers identify how to think about retooling their business for a new economy after the close of Ft. Monmouth. A change management consultant will be on hand to deliver planning advice along with local businesses that have made significant change. Business owners and manager will leave with an action plan and a reference guide of programs and services to assist your business in making a successful change.
